OF THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

CONSTITUTION

RATIFIED the 7th day of April, 2008. AMENDED the 8th day of April, 2013. AMENDED the 14th day of April, 2015.

ARTICLE I – THE SOCIETY

I.1 – Name

This association shall be called the Medical Undergraduate Society of The University of British Columbia.

I.2 – Vision

The vision of the Society shall be to promote a high quality of education and to promote the general well-being and interests of its Members.

I.3 – Objectives

The Objectives of the Society shall be:

- a) To promote high quality of education for its Members, and
- b) To expand the breadth of the educational experience of its Members, and
- c) To improve the well-being of its Members, and
- d) To serve as the only organization that represents the interests of its Members, including to The University of British Columbia Faculty of Medicine and its various committees, the Senate, the Alma Mater Society, the Canadian Federation of Medical Students, and
- e) To serve as a liaison between individual medical students and the Faculty, and provide support for the individual by representing his/her interests in a concerned but impartial manner, and
- f) To promote interconnectivity between members at all distributed sites of the Faculty, and
- g) To pursue equitable student experience amongst members across all distributed sites and Clerkships of the Faculty.

I.4 – The Society Logo

The Society Logo is shown in the accompanying design and shall be used in accordance with Bylaw 11, “Acceptable Use of the Society Logo.”

ARTICLE II – MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the Society shall be granted as follows:

II.1 – Active Members

Active Members of the Society shall be all students enrolled in the UBC Faculty of Medicine of The University of British Columbia seeking the undergraduate degree of Doctor of Medicine (M.D.), regardless of the site which the student is located at.

II.2 – Honorary Members

Honorary Members shall include:

- a) Graduates of the MD Undergraduate Program of The University of British Columbia Faculty of Medicine, and
- b) Those individuals upon whom the Society confers honorary membership (refer to 4.1.2e).

ARTICLE III – EXECUTIVE BODIES

III.1 – Council

- a) The affairs of the Society shall be overseen by a Council organized and operated according to the Bylaws of the Society. The Council may exercise all powers of the Society in accordance with the Objectives of the Society, as outlined in Article 1 “The Society,” Section 3 “Objectives”.
- b) The voting Membership of the Council shall consist of all elected Council Members in accordance with Bylaw 3, “Structure of the Society.”
- c) The Council shall be charged with the duty of supervising the affairs and activities of the Society, in accordance with the Objectives of the Society, as outlined in Article 1 “The Society,” Section 3 “Objectives.”

III.2 – The Executive

- a) The Executive shall be the body that manages the affairs of the Society. It shall be organized and operated according to the Bylaws of the Society.

- b) Student Council Officers shall compose an Executive consisting of, at a minimum, a President, Past President, Vice President NMP, Vice President IMP, Vice President SMP, and Vice President Finance, in accordance with Bylaw 3, "Structure of the Society."
- c) The Executive shall be charged with the duty of overseeing the development of Society policy, in accordance with the Objectives of the Society, as outlined in Article 1 "The Society," Section 3 "Objectives," through Society standing committees or ad-hoc committees, and that policy shall be directed to the Council for approval.
- d) The Executive does not have the power to ratify or alter Society policy. This right is reserved for the Council.

III.3 – Class Executives

- a) The Class Executives shall be the representative body of each Class. They shall be organized and operated in a manner consistent with the Bylaws of the Society.
- b) The Class Executives shall represent the interests of their respective classes to the Society and to the faculty.

III.4 – Advisors

- a) There shall be Member(s) of the Faculty elected by the Society at the Annual General Meeting to serve in advisory capacities to the Society. A Faculty Advisor and such Associate Faculty Advisors, as approved by the Society, shall serve a two-year term and may be re-elected for a total of four terms normally, unless otherwise determined by the Society.

ARTICLE IV – AUTHORITATIVE DOCUMENTS

IV.1 – Authoritative Documents

IV.1.1 – Constitution

The constitution shall contain the foundational principles and definitions of the structure and operation of the Society. The constitution shall have binding authority over the actions and proceedings of the Society.

IV.1.2 – Bylaws

The Bylaws shall further define the regular operation and structure of the Society.

IV.2 – Enactment, Amendment and Repeal of the Constitution or Bylaws

- a) The Constitution or Bylaws of the Society may be enacted, amended, or repealed by:
 - i) Resolution of the Society passed by two-thirds (2/3) Majority Vote of Active Members at the Annual General Meeting, or
 - ii) Resolution of the Society passed by a two-thirds (2/3) Majority Vote of Active Members at a Special General Meeting of the Society duly called for the purpose of considering the enactment, amendment or repeal of the Constitution, or

- iii) Referendum held in accordance with Bylaw 9, "Referenda."
- b) An Amendment to the Constitution or Bylaws may be proposed by:
 - i) Any Active Member provided that the proposed amendment is signed by five percent (5%) of the Active Members and delivered to the Vice President Administration, or
 - ii) A Resolution of the Council, or
 - iii) Any Council member with the unanimous agreement of the Executive, or
 - iv) The Constitution & Bylaws Committee
- c) The Vice President Administration shall immediately upon receipt of such proposed amendments referred to in this Article shall:
 - i) Provide the proposed amendments to the Active Membership via e-mail, and
 - ii) Post said amendments in a conspicuous location on the Society website, and
 - iii) Submit said amendments to Council for discussion at the first meeting of Council held after their receipt by the Vice President Administration.
- d) Not less than thirty (30) and not more than sixty (60) days after posting of the proposed amendments, Council shall submit said amendment to the Society at an Annual General meeting or Special General meeting, or by referendum, as provided in this Article. Notice of intention to repose any amendments shall be given in the notice convening the Annual General meeting or Special General meeting or calling the referendum.

ARTICLE V – DISSOLUTION

In the event of dissolution of the Society, after resolving its debts and obligations, the Society shall devote any remaining assets to the promotion of one or more objects of the Society if feasible, and if not, the Society shall donate its remaining assets to the Faculty of Medicine of The University of British Columbia to be put towards the creation of a new Scholarship for undergraduate medical students if feasible, and if not, to a Canadian charity or charities, which the Society shall select.

- e) Ballots shall list the names of the candidates for each position in alphabetical order.
- f) Disruptions to the voting period will be rectified as soon as possible and the voting period will be extended by the amount of time approximating the period lost due to the disruption. The approximation of additional voting time is at the discretion of the EO.

5.1.11 – Election Results

- a) The results of the electronic voting process are to be reviewed by the EO and the President, or a delegate of the President in the event that the EO is the President. These results will be deleted and/or destroyed immediately after the Annual General Meeting.
- b) Election results shall be provided to candidates with respect to their elected position only, upon request of the EO by that candidate via e-mail within seventy-two (72), but not before twenty-four (24) hours after the closure of the polls.
- c) Immediately following the aforementioned review of results, the EO shall release the list of successful candidates, via e-mail and by posting on the Society website, to the Active Members of the Society.

5.1.12 – Appeals

- a) Any unsuccessful or disqualified candidate may make an appeal of the election results within forty-eight (48) hours of the release of results by the EO, but is strongly recommended to make any appeal in the 24 hours before election results are released.
- b) The candidate must make a written submission to the President outlining the reasons for his/her appeal. The President shall consult with the Faculty advisor and at once notify Council of the appeal, a procedure for addressing the appeal, and any resulting decisions.
- c) The appeal will be reviewed and the resolution of the President deemed valid by resolution of the Council. If necessary the results of the election for that position shall be declared void, and the position shall be declared an “Open Position.” The EO shall organize a by-election immediately, to be held no more than ten (10) days upon declaration of an “Open Position.”

5.1.13 – Resignation, Disqualification and Vacancy

- a) Vacancies or resignations shall be filled by secret ballot vote held by voting Council Members at the next Council meeting after the vacancy or resignation occurs. The Vice President Administration, or in the event of vacancy of the office of the Vice President Administration the Vice President Internal, shall announce that the position is open, and the following procedures for the election via e-mail and posting on the Society website. Nominations for the position must be submitted to the Vice President Administration or Vice President Internal at least forty-eight (48) hours before the Council Meeting. At the Council Meeting, prior to the vote of Council, the Chairperson shall permit nominees to make a statement to Council no more than three (3) minutes in length.
 - i) However, when vacant, site-specific positions are sought, distributed sites shall run by-elections to elect their representatives to council. VP of the distributed site shall run elections for VP Socials for that site. Elections for VPs of the distributed sites shall be run by the MUS elections officer.
- b) Any Council Member may withdraw from his/her position at any time by giving notice in writing to the Vice President Administration or President and the withdrawal shall be effective from the date fixed in such notice.
- c) Any office shall become vacant if the Council Member should fail or withdraw from his/her year, and in so doing becomes no longer eligible to hold that position according to Bylaw 5 “Nominations and Elections” Section 5.1.6 “Eligibility.”
- d) Any candidate exhibiting unprofessional behaviour may be stricken from the ballot at the discretion of the EO.

5.1.14 – Terms of Positions

- a) The elected Council shall assume office upon installation which shall occur at adjournment of the Annual General meeting, except
 - i) the Vice President Administration, the Clubs Representative, the VP Global Health Jr., and the Year I President, who shall assume office upon posting of the Year I Class Executive election results to the Year I E-mail Listserv by the Year II Class Vice President Administration in accordance with Bylaw 5.2 “Class Executive Elections,” and
 - ii) the Year II and Year III Presidents, whose terms shall begin the day after the last day of examinations for their school year, as defined by the Policies and Procedures of the Faculty, and
 - iii) the Year IV President, whose term shall begin at the end of the next Year IV Class Executive meeting following the AGM, or as deemed appropriate by the current Year IV Class Executive, and
 - iv) any Council members that assume office partway through the Academic Year, such as those for positions filled by a by-election or filled by Council for a vacant office.
- b) Terms shall run for one year, from installation until the adjournment of the Annual General meeting at the end of the following year, except
 - i) the Vice President Administration, whose term shall end at the adjournment of the first Council meeting of the following year, and
 - ii) the Year Presidents, whose terms shall end on the last day of examinations for the Academic Year of their class, and
 - iii) any Terms that commence partway through the Academic Year, such as those for positions filled by a by-election or filled by Council for a vacant office.

- b) The Agenda shall be established according to the following procedure, which may be varied by the Agenda Committee as needed by consensus of the committee members:

Two Sundays before any Meeting the VP Admin will send a request for agenda items at the upcoming MUS meeting to be submitted by that Wednesday at noon. These agenda items will be compiled and sent to the members of the Agenda Committee by or before Thursday at midnight. The committee will review the requests, and any member may propose an agenda for discussion. A brief explanation of reasons for excluding requested agenda items should be included with the proposed agenda. By or before that Sunday at noon the committee must arrive at a finalized agenda by consensus (where silence is deemed to be agreement) to be distributed by the Vice President Admin. After the finalized agenda has been agreed upon, the President retains the ability to modify the proposed agenda to the extent that the changes are not inconsistent with the purposes of the agreed-upon agenda.
- c) No quorum shall be required for meetings of the Agenda Committee, but notice of proposals/discussion must be provided to all committee members.
- d) On express consensus of all Agenda Committee members, an agenda item may be marked as necessitating a Dual Requirement of Examination (DRE). Such items must have a significant and direct impact on the distributed sites such that their assent at Council is necessitated to allow fair and equitable disposition of any and all motions arising from the item. Once marked as DRE, only agreement of the Agenda Committee may revise the agenda item's status. Disputes over this issue are to be addressed through mediation and if necessary adjudication by the Faculty Advisor.
- e) Meetings of the Agenda Committee may be conducted by email, and may be initiated by any member of the Agenda Committee at any time.

Appendix 2- Financial Policies

- a) The financial details of the MUS, including the complete annual budget and bank account balances, are not to be disseminated to individuals or groups who do not currently belong to the MUS.
- b) The VP Finance, in consultation with the Finance Committee, may enact changes to these Financial Policies as necessary during their term to meet the financial needs of the MUS.
- c) The financial accounts of the MUS, which is a UBC student society, are held under those of the Alma Mater Society (AMS) at UBC. The MUS must comply with the financial policies and procedures of the AMS.
- d) The MUS is not a charitable organization, and therefore cannot issue tax deductible receipts for donations. The MUS can provide a non-profit number (through the AMS) for external contributions.
 - i. Tax-deductible donations may, however, be made to services and facilities at the Medical Student and Alumni Centre (MSAC), which is a separate institution from the MUS. Those interested in donating to the MSAC may be referred to Nancy Thompson.
- e) All payments to the MUS must be addressed to "Medical Undergraduate Society c/o AMS".
- f) Surplus funds available at the end of each year shall be automatically placed into the variable fund portion of the budget for consideration for use by the MUS Council.
- g) The MUS is to maintain a contingency fund of at least $150,000 (equal to one year's budget) calculated at the end of each financial year.
- h) The MUS may act as the receiver of contributions by any external group (e.g. Doctors of BC) on behalf of specific MUS clubs and student initiatives, and forward these contributions to the recipient clubs and initiatives either in advance of spending or through reimbursement of spending.
- i) Payments to the MUS (by students or external organizations) should be in the form of cheques, not cash or other form of currency, unless otherwise allowed by the VP Finance.
- j) Reimbursements (including reimbursement form and receipts) for MUS-sponsored spending must be submitted to the VP Finance as physical copies unless otherwise allowed by the VP Finance.

- k) Refer to Bylaw 8.1 for policies related to clubs funding and the operation of the Clubs Committee.
- l) The distributed sites (NMP, SMP, IMP) have flexibility in allocating annual budgets at the discretion of each distributed site's Vice President to better match distributed site student needs.
- m) The MUS may provide advance funding for the events/services listed below, with the designated compensation scheme:
 - i. MUS provides up-front funding for the annual first-year event, Camp Make Friends, and is reimbursed in full by student payments.
 - ii. MUS provides up-front funding for the annual event, MedBall, and is reimbursed in full by student payments.
 - iii. MUS provides up-front funding for the annual NMP event, Spring Ball, and is reimbursed by student payments and/or the cost is deducted from the allotted NMP budget.
 - iv. MUS provides payment of student membership fees to the Canadian Federation of Medical Students (CFMS) following receipt of these fees from students.
 - v. MUS provides payment of the annual Toronto Notes order following receipt of student payments.
 - vi. MUS provides complete payment to PageNet for 3rd year student pagers. There is approximately a 30%/70% split of the costs with the Faculty of Medicine. The Faculty of Medicine will reimburse the MUS 70% of the costs of 3rd year pagers.
 - vii. MUS provides an annual loan to the Graduation Committee. The loan is reimbursed in full by the Graduation Committee at the end of each year. This is separate from the amount allotted to the Graduation Committee in the MUS budget.
- n) The VP Finance, in coordination with the Finance Committee, shall conduct an annual end-of-the-year analysis of budget spending by all MUS-funded departments to calculate annual deficit or surplus. In the case of surplus, leftover funds may be applied to the Variable Use fund except in certain circumstances:
 - i. Surplus clubs budgets may be added to the next year's total clubs budget for redistribution.
 - ii. Surplus PAC travel budgets may be added to the next year's total PAC travel budget.
- o) The MSAC pays for gym water and gym repairs on behalf of the MUS, and then submits invoices to the MUS to be reimbursed.
- p) Funding for limitations for specific MUS-sponsored activities are below:
 - i. Clubs may spend their designated funding on the events proposed in their funding applications. Several policies apply:
 - a. Speakers who are current UBC MD students (i.e. are current members of the MUS) cannot receive gifts from MUS-sponsored club budgets.
 - b. Alcohol may not be purchased using MUS-sponsored club budgets.
 - ii. CFMS conference funding includes accommodation and transport, not food.
 - iii. PAC Provincial and National Lobby Day funding includes accommodation and transport, not food.
